

*We want to build and launch rockets,
that's what we are here to do.*

Daily Update: We're moving in the right direction, especially in making great strides in preserving seniority, protecting subcontracting language and we have started making progress in shift scheduling. OT selection remains a major issue and we will stand strong on this for our membership. At the end of the day, this is about respect. It's the men and women on shop floors across the U.S.A. who have made ULA the company it is today. We deserve a contract that allows us to take care of our families, recognizes our sacrifices and makes us proud to be part of the ULA.
